United Nations S/2014/63

Security Council

Distr.: General
29 January 2014

Original: English

Letter dated 28 January 2014 from the Secretary-General addressed to the President of the Security Council

I have the honour to refer to Security Council resolution 307 (1971) of 21 December 1971, by which the Council decided that the United Nations Military Observer Group in India and Pakistan (UNMOGIP) should monitor the ceasefire line in Jammu and Kashmir. The countries that currently contribute military observers to UNMOGIP are Chile, Croatia, Finland, Italy, the Philippines, the Republic of Korea, Sweden, Thailand and Uruguay.

As a result of consultations with the Secretariat, the Governments of the Republic of Korea and Sweden have respectively reduced their total military observers by one. As a result, I intend to add Switzerland to the list of contributors to UNMOGIP.

I should be grateful if you could bring this matter to the attention of the members of the Security Council.
